

Privacy Notice

ILMA PLASTICA SRL, Controller of the personal data processing in accordance with EU Regulation 2016/679 (GDPR) and Italian Decree n. 101/2018, recognizes the importance of personal data protection and considers its protection one of the main aims of its own activity.

The processing of the personal data takes place in the administration of the Controller, or possibly in other operational headquarters or by third parties. The data provided for the processing are not disclosed unless an authorization and a specific privacy policy are signed.

The data could be disclosed to those companies contractually linked to the Controller and, if necessary, to entities within the EU and outside, according to the GDPR.

The processing is carried out both manually and in an automated way, with the use of tools aimed at guaranteeing its security and confidentiality. The processing is carried out by entities appointed as Processors according to the GDPR.

The data collected are kept in a form which permits the identification of data subjects for no longer than it is necessary for the purposes for which the personal data are processed.

With regard to those data that we must know for compliance with the legal obligations related to existing contracts and with regard to those obligations provided for laws, regulations, Community legislation or for provisions given by the Authorities legitimized by the law and oversight bodies, if these data are not provided it is impossible to build and continue the relationship, according to the necessary limits to execute such relationship.

We inform you that the right to ask the Controller the existence of the data and its origin and contents can be exercised anytime. The data provided may also be completed, updated or corrected by the Controller.

According to the GDPR the right to rectification, erasure, restriction of processing, data portability and to object to the data processing for legitimate reasons can be exercised anytime.

All requests must be sent to the Processor by email (email: ilma@ilmaplastica.it)
